MUNCIE RESIDENT SENTENCED FOR CHILD PORNOGRAPHY

PRESS RELEASE

Susan W. Brooks, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, announced that MICHAEL K. DAVIS, 37, Muncie, Indiana, was sentenced to 78 months imprisonment today by U.S. District Judge David F. Hamilton following his guilty plea to possession of child pornography. This case was investigated by the Indiana State Police and Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Law enforcement authorities found DAVIS's computer and several hundred computer disks contained thousands of sexually explicit images of children, and several thousands more of child erotica. DAVIS's collection included images of minors under age 10, some infants, and violence perpetrated upon nude children.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Gayle L. Helart, who prosecuted the case for the government, Judge Hamilton also imposed lifetime supervised release following DAVIS's release from imprisonment. During this period, DAVIS must be registered as a sex offender and attend treatment.
